It is always important for me to know your opinions on various issues related to state government. Each of us has a unique perspective on how to approach the issues facing our state. As your State Representative in the Indiana Legislature, I rely on your feedback and communication to help me do my job.

Making Progress

Through bipartisan cooperation over the last year, the General Assembly was able to pass legislation that was in the best interest of our state. From new economic development measures and streamlining small business regulations, to fighting crime and improving educational standards—lawmakers from across Indiana came together to address serious issues.

Solving problems

I will continue to work on common-sense solutions to the problems that face our community. The last state budget bill passed by a slim margin, in spite of my vote against it. As a result, we face new property tax increases, and schools are being forced to increase class sizes, cut programs, and lay-off teachers. I know we can do better—and your suggestions can help.

Your opinion counts

Several important issues are anticipated to come up this session, and I want to know how you feel about them. Please take a few moments to complete the attached confidential survey. I read every survey I receive, and the input is very helpful. Additionally, if there is a specific issue that you feel strongly about, please feel free to add your comments.

Thank you for your time, and please let me know if I can ever be of service.
